

St. John's Lutheran Church

www.StJohnsBeaufort.org

Youth 2010 Christmas Nativity Scene

As John's magnificent 3:16 sets the stage of hope for the real-life drama of the Incarnation, and with Matthew and Luke co-authoring the scenario, it was only natural that a cast of St. John's youth brought it to life for us once again.

From what has to have been a trio of the tiniest angels ever to have graced our chancel to the tallest Joseph on record, clusters of angels, shepherds and wise men gathered around the Holy Family to praise God, offer gifts, and lead the congregation in singing century old carols.

Our deepest appreciation to them and to the parents and teachers who put the traditional Christmas pageant together, complete with the wonderful camel-on-wheels and a "king" sporting a moustache worthy of an oriental monarch.

Clusters of angels, shepherds, and kings ebbed and flowed around the manger. Special music and narration were provided by Courtney Hershberger and Mindy Cole.

